

Movie Schedule for April 2008

Wednesday, Apr 2nd, Chicago (2002)

Rated: PG-13, 113 minutes

Winner of six Academy Awards.

Richard Gere, Catherine Zeta-Jones

Chicago is a dazzling spectacle cheered by audiences and critics alike! It was a time when crimes of passion result in celebrity headlines, and Billy Flynn (Gere), the town's slickest lawyer had a talent for turning notorious defendants into local legends.

Friday, Apr 4th, A Fine Mess (2005)

Rated: PG, 90 minutes

Ted Danson, Howie Mandel

While making a movie at a racetrack, lady-crazed actor, con-artist and all-around bungler Spence Holden (Danson) stumbles onto two goofball thugs doping a race horse. Spence sees a chance to make some money but not before the thugs discovers his plan, and the chase is on.

Saturday, Apr 5th, Lion of the Desert (2005)

Rated: PG

Oliver Reed, Anthony Quinn, Rod Steiger

Anthony Quinn stars as Omar Mukhtar, the brilliant Bedouin leader who waged a 20-year guerilla war against the invading Italian tank armies led by General Rodolfo 'The Butcher' Graziani and increasingly furious Fascist dictator Benito Mussolini.

Monday, Apr 7th, Angel Heart (2004)
Rated: R, 112 minutes

Mickey Rourke, Robert De Niro, Lisa Bonet

Harry Angel (Rourke), a down-and-out fifties Brooklyn gumshoe, takes us on a journey of violence and murder that canvasses the desperate streets of Harlem, smoke-filled jazz clubs of New Orleans, and ultimately to voodoo rituals in the sweltering swamps of Louisiana.

Wednesday, Apr 9th, Wedding Daze (2006)
Rated: G

John Larroquette, Karen Valentine

Jack and Audrey Landry plans for a second honeymoon is put on hold when their three daughters return home to roost and announce that they're all getting married on the same day!

Friday, Apr 11th, Michael Clayton (2007)
Rated: R, 120 minutes

George Clooney, Tom Wilkinson

Attorney Michael Clayton (Clooney) is a "fixer," the go-to guy when his powerful New York law firm wants a mess swept under the rug. But now he is handed a crisis even he may not be able to fix.

Saturday, Apr 12th, McLintock
Non-rated, 126 minutes

John Wayne, Maureen O'Hara

Cattle baron, banker, and model citizen McLintock (Wayne) has the world in his hands. The only thing missing is his wife (O'Hara), who left him two years earlier, suspecting him of adultery. However, when his wife returns, his simple and serene lifestyle comes to an end. Now his wife trusts him even less and thinks that he is having a fling with the widow he has hired to cook.

Monday, Apr 14th, Accidental Spy
Rated: PG-13, 87 minutes

Jackie Chan

In this movie, Jackie Chan rises to the occasion in a fun-filled story about an ordinary guy whose life changes one day when he becomes an instant hero by foiling an attempted bank robbery. Then, as he travels to Turkey to meet the father he's never known, Jackie becomes entangled in a web of mystery and deceit.

Wednesday, Apr 16th, Christine (1983)
Rated: R, 110 minutes

Keith Gordon, John Stockwell

She was born in Detroit . . . on an automobile assembly line. But she is no ordinary automobile. Deep within her chassis lives an unholy presence. She is CHRISTINE – a red and white 1958 Plymouth Fury whose standard equipment include evil and destructive vengeance that will destroy anyone in her way.

Friday, Apr 18th, Seven Days in May (1963)
Not rated; 118 minutes

Burt Lancaster, Kirk Douglas, Fredric March

At odds are a popular general and Joint Chiefs of Staff Chairman (Burt Lancaster) and an unpopular President (Frederic March) with a pacifist agenda. At stake is the survival of the Republic. Are seven fateful days enough to prevent a takeover of the government?

Saturday, Apr 19th, Prisoners of the Sun
Rated: R, 108 minutes

Russell Crowe, Bryan Brown, George Takei

An oppressive mood hangs over the small island of Ambon, Indonesia, where hundreds of Australian prisoners of war have been massacred by their Japanese guards. World War II is nearly over and two officers (Brown and Crowe) must prosecute those Japanese officers responsible.

Monday, Apr 21st, Lara Croft: Tomb Raider (2001)

Rated: PG-13, 100 minutes

Angelina Jolie, Jon Voight

Exploring lost empires, finding priceless treasures, punishing villains in mortal combat is all in a day's work for adventurer Lara Croft (Angelina Jolie).

Wednesday, Apr 23rd, Ghost Busters (1984)

Rated: PG, 105 minutes

Bill Murray, Dan Aykroyd, Sigourney Weaver

When Doctors Venkman (Murray) and Stantz (Aykroyd) suddenly find themselves downsized from the University's parapsychology department, they decide to go the entrepreneurial route, chasing down ghastly ghosts, etc.

Friday, Apr 25th, Fallen (1998)

Rated: R, 125 minutes

Denzel Washington, John Goodman

Homicide detective Hobbs (Washington) pursues a killer down a bustling sidewalk. There she is a small, middle-aged woman. No, wait, the killer is the timid man beside her. Now it's someone else. The murderer Hobbs seeks is really a demon passing from one human host to another with a brush of an overcoat or touch of a hand.

Saturday, Apr 26th, Under the Tuscan Sun
Rated: PG-13, 113 minutes

Diane Lane

The movie follows San Francisco writer Frances Mayes (Lane) to Italy as a good friend offers her a special gift – ten days in Tuscany. Once there she is captivated by its beauty and warmth, and impulsively buys an aging, but very charming villa. And she begins to believe in second chances.

Monday, Apr 28th, Shane (1952)
Rated: PG, 117 minutes

Alan Ladd, Jean Arthur, Van Heflin

The story brings Alan Ladd, a drifter and retired gunfighter, to the assistance of a homestead family terrorized by a wealthy cattleman and his hired gun (Palance). In fighting the last decisive battle, Shane sees the end of his own way of life.

Wednesday, Apr 30th, Angels Fall (2007)
Not rated, 95 minutes

Heather Locklear, Johnathon Schaech

An adaptation of a Nora Roberts novel concerning a withdrawn young woman who is forced to reconnect with the human race after her car fails in the town of Angel's fist. The only problem is that by seeking the help of others, she may put her own life in danger.